Instructions: what you have to do

Please complete this application form carefully, taking account of what you know about 4 Pump Court, the work that you would be expected to do and the knowledge, skills and other abilities that we will be assessing. You should bear in mind the criteria which will be applied in making our selection of candidates (which are listed on the next page).

Applications for Pupillage must be received by 11:59(pm), on Wednesday 8 February 2023. Applications may be submitted by email to pupillage@4pumpcourt.com. Applications can also be submitted in hard copy (either typed or completed clearly in black ink) marked for the attention of Ms Sarah Lenihan. We will not accept applications by fax.

Chambers is recruiting for one pupillage commencing in October 2023 and two pupilages commencing in October 2024. Please include the type of pupillage you are applying for in the subject of the email (Pupillage commencing 2023 only, 2024 only or both 2023 and 2024). *Please note that the application process is the same whether you are applying for either start date or both.

We are aware that candidates come from varied backgrounds and our form is designed to ensure that all relevant information can be included; there may, therefore, be sections of the form which are not relevant to you. Please do not feel compelled to fill every corner of every space; only include information which you think we will find important and relevant. Where we impose a limit on the number of words to be used or space on the form, please have regard to those limits; text which exceeds the stated maximum will be disregarded. When completing your application it is important not to expand the spaces provided – even if your software permits you to do so – because this additional content will not be visible to us and therefore cannot be taken into account. Before submitting your completed form as a pdf please take care to ensure that all of the content on every page can be read. We will take into account how you present information on this form when assessing your application (which may, if you wish, include bullet points and numbered paragraphs if deemed appropriate).

We aim to let you know by email if you have been shortlisted for interview. First round interviews will be held on Monday 20 and Tuesday 21 March 2023. Second round interviews will be held on Friday 24 March 2023.

We will only require you to provide references if you are shortlisted for a first round interview. If you are shortlisted, please fill your name in the standard form letter included within this application form (section 10 below) and send them to your referees. Please ask your referees to return their reference to us as soon as possible, and in any event by 4pm on Friday 10 March 2023. You may wish to give your referees advance notice that a reference may be required by this date. Completed references may be submitted by email to pupillage@4pumpcourt.com or in hard copy marked for the attention of Ms Sarah Lenihan.

Our criteria: what we are looking for

We only offer pupillages to those candidates who have the potential to become successful tenants and outstanding advocates, and who intend to practise at the Bar of England & Wales. We are keen to recruit bright, independent-minded people, who thrive on hard work, have the ability to be self-starters, are keen to learn, and have something to offer us.

We apply the same criteria to our applicants for pupillage as we apply in our selection of potential tenants. They are:

- (a) Academic achievement and intellectual ability;
- (b) Analytical skills – including the ability to absorb complex information rapidly and identify essentials;
- (c) Common sense and sound judgment - including the ability to remain pragmatic and practical;
- (d) Written skills – ability to prepare clear, precise and accurate written work; ability to present arguments persuasively in writing;
- (e) Advocacy / public speaking / oral presentation skills – ability to present an oral argument clearly, persuasively, appropriately and with confidence and impact;
- (f) Resilience and independence – ability to work independently, seeking guidance where necessary; does not back away from tackling difficult or stressful situations; remains calm and in control under pressure;
- (g) Motivation/Capacity for hard work – level of drive and determination; conscientiousness, commitment to a career at the Bar and understanding of what a career as a barrister in chambers entails;
- (h) Impact and ability to deal with people – including articulacy; confidence; perceptiveness; and ability to build productive working relationships (whether with judges, lay clients, professional clients, other members of the Bar or clerks); and
- (i) Integrity and high ethical and professional standards.

Commitment to equal opportunities & diversity

We are committed to equal opportunities and diversity and aim to select candidates for both pupillage and tenancy solely on merit irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation, although in cases where two or more candidates are of equal merit preference will be given to those who are Black (i.e. “African”, “Caribbean”, “Black British”, “white and Black Caribbean” or “white and Black African heritage”).

We will consider any reasonable adjustments needed to ensure that you can participate in our selection process fairly.

Note: to those whom we do not select

We regret that we are unable to enter into correspondence with unsuccessful candidates. We expect to receive over 120 applications, from which we will shortlist about 16 for interview. Applicants who are not shortlisted or are unsuccessful at interview sometimes write to us asking for feedback or asking particular questions relating to their specific applications. As a matter of courtesy, we would like to be able to answer each letter individually. As a matter of practicality, however, we do not have the time or resources to enter into individual correspondence with unsuccessful candidates. We therefore regretfully ask that you do not request feedback.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Re: .....

Dear Sir or Madam,

Application for a Reference

You have been put forward as a referee by the above named applicant to assist them with their application for pupillage in the barristers' Chambers of Sean Brannigan KC and Rachel Ansell KC at 4 Pump Court.

We aim to assess each applicant objectively against criteria which identify the skills, knowledge and other abilities required to carry out the work that a pupil in these chambers can expect to do. We are committed to equal opportunities and diversity and aim to select candidates for both pupillage and tenancy solely on merit irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

I should be most grateful if you would provide us with your confidential assessment of the applicant by reference, where possible, to the criteria listed below, giving examples of the applicant's actions and achievements where appropriate.

The criteria are:

- (a) Academic achievement and intellectual ability
- (b) Analytical skills – including the ability to absorb complex information rapidly and identify essentials
- (c) Common sense and sound judgment - including the ability to remain pragmatic and practical
- (d) Written skills – ability to prepare clear, precise and accurate written work; ability to present arguments persuasively in writing
- (e) Advocacy / public speaking / oral presentation skills – ability to present an oral argument clearly, persuasively, appropriately and with confidence and impact

- (f) Resilience and independence – ability to work independently, seeking guidance where necessary; does not back away from tackling difficult or stressful situations; remains calm and in control under pressure
- (g) Motivation/Capacity for hard work – level of drive and determination; conscientiousness, commitment to a career at the Bar and understanding of what a career as a barrister in chambers entails
- (h) Impact and ability to deal with people – including articulacy; confidence; perceptiveness; and ability to build productive working relationships (whether with judges, lay clients, professional clients, other members of the Bar or clerks)
- (i) Integrity and high ethical and professional standards.

Please add any other information which you think will assist us to make a fair and accurate assessment of this applicant.

I should be most grateful if you could reply to me at 4 Pump Court as soon as possible, and, in any event, by 4pm on Friday 10 March 2023, to enable us to consider this reference in advance of the first round interviews on Monday 20 and Tuesday 21 March 2023. Completed references may be submitted by email to pupillage@4pumpcourt.com or in hard copy marked for the attention of Ms Sarah Lenihan.

Thank you for your help.

Yours faithfully,

James Hatt
