4 Pump Court are gold sponsors of the Society of Computers and Law Annual Conference 2020

We are delighted to be sponsoring the SCL Annual Conference again this year, albeit under different circumstances to usual. This year's conference will be held virtually across two days on 7th and 8th October.

The schedule for the conference runs as follows:

- Tech for Tech Lawyers – understanding the technology behind Software Development & Technology Projects, essential knowledge to support technology contracting
- Dispute Resolution in a digital age
- Risk Thinking – the new standard for legal and regulatory risk – crucial knowledge for in-house and those who support in-house and advise complex businesses
- Smart Cities & Digital Villages
- The latest developments in legal technology – how to thrive as a digital lawyer!
- International Data Transfer – Advising in a globalised world
- SCL Tech Law Barometer https://www.scl.org/barometer20
- Flash Talks

Matthew Lavy will be speaking on day one of the conference, on 'Tech for Tech Lawyers: Understanding the technology behind Software Development & Technology Projects, essential knowledge to support technology contracting'.

Sean Brannigan KC is chairing the session on 'Smart Cities & Digital Villages: The latest developments in legal technology – how to thrive as a digital lawyer', taking place on the second day of the conference.

Anna Hoffmann will be presenting a flask talk on "The rise of the data breach group action in the UK? What is happening and why care?"

Registration is available now to both members and non-members of the society.
