

Abhimanyu Bhandari becomes an Associate Member

4 Pump Court are delighted to announce that Indian barrister Abhimanyu Bhandari is now an associate member.

Abhimanyu has extensive experience of more than 15 years as a commercial disputes lawyer, focusing on arbitration and litigation across various industry sectors. His clients include banks, conglomerates, private companies, public sector undertakings, non-profit organizations, national / political figures and celebrities, represented before the Supreme Court of India, High Courts of India and tribunals. Abhi has a substantial international and domestic arbitration practice and is frequently engaged by corporates and law firms in matters before the LCIA, SIAC and other international arbitration forums.