

Alex Haines joins 4 Pump Court

4 Pump Court is delighted to welcome Alex Haines to Chambers with effect from today.

Alex is called to both the English and Irish Bars and is a US-qualified attorney admitted to the Bars of New York and Washington DC. His practice focuses on business crime (including global investigations and the debarment frameworks of Multilateral Development Banks), sanctions and export control, international regulatory and disciplinary proceedings, international administrative law, international arbitration and ADR. He is described by Chambers and Partners as “an extremely robust advocate with a firm knowledge of the subject matter and a respectful yet zealous work ethic.”

Joint Head of Chambers Sean Brannigan KC and Rachel Ansell KC comment: “We are delighted that Alex is joining us. He has an impressive reputation as a commercial advocate, particularly in international work, which naturally compliments Chambers’ ever-growing commercial practice.”

Alex Haines comments: “The barristers at 4 Pump Court have a longstanding reputation for excellence in advocacy and advice in disputes dealt with in locations around the globe. I look forward to complementing the existing sanctions, civil fraud and international arbitration teams with my experience and expertise, including in the sanctions and debarment frameworks of Multilateral Development Banks and International Financial Institutions.”
