

Alice Carse and Quentin Tannock called to the Gibraltar Bar

Alice Carse and Quentin Tannock were called to the Gibraltar Bar this morning, for the purpose of appearing as Counsel for different parties in proceedings before the Supreme Court of Gibraltar in the context of a significant corporate dispute, pursuing applications to appoint a liquidator and provisional liquidator on the “just and equitable” ground.