

CIOB Masterclass Series: 3rd December 2015

Jessica Stephens will be speaking at the Hill International CIOB Masterclass Series. The question of whether something does or doesn't constitute a contractual change still dominates construction disputes. The seminar will look in more detail at the following key issues:

- What are the most common disputes that arise in relation to variations?
- What are the Contractors' obligations to undertake works not referred to?
- How far does Design Development extend?
- What design responsibility do you have for varied work?
- The impact of changed conditions on varied and contract works
- Resolving contradictions between documents and incomplete information
- Can unprofitable rates be used to value change and are there limits?

The seminar will take place at 11 Pilgrim Street, London, EC4V 6RN with registration taking place from 5.30pm.
