

Defamation, Data, Privacy: Shaping New Law into Solution-Focused Answers for Clients

<https://vimeo.com/514612712>

When does the public interest override obligations under reputation protection clauses, typically included in settlement agreements and employment contracts/policies?

Lord Garnier KC answers this question as part of a recent White Paper Conference. A clip of Edward's answer is available above, access to the full answer and full conference can be purchased via White Paper Conferences. The conference is available online, on-demand until 23rd June 2021.