

John Rowland KC returns to 4 Pump Court

4 Pump Court are delighted to announce that John Rowland KC will be returning to chambers as of the 11th April 2016 following five years practising as an advocate with Clayton Utz, the leading litigation lawyers in Australia.

John had over 30 years of commercial litigation experience with 4 Pump Court, specialising in insurance and re-insurance, before moving to Australia and while there has developed extensive experience in international disputes involving large infrastructure and construction projects.