We are delighted to announce that Wolters Kluwer has released 'The FIDIC Conditions of Contract and Domestic Construction Law'. Jonathan Schaffer-Goddard contributed the chapter on English law.

Bringing together contributions from eminent practitioners and academics worldwide, the book offers an analysis of how domestic construction law interacts with the FIDIC terms.

This volume will be an indispensable reference for anyone engaged in the global construction sector. It covers seventeen jurisdictions across Asia, Europe and Latin America, including many of the most important jurisdictions and laws for large project work today.
