Yesterday evening, Mek Mesfin spoke on a panel at a Gray's Inn hosted event 'Pathways to the Bar: Diverse Perspectives'.

An amazing panel of barristers from groups and backgrounds that are currently under-represented at the Bar, discussed their experience of entering and succeeding in the profession, the support available to prospective students, and diversity at the Bar.

Other panelists included Mr Justice Pushpinder Saini, Nancy Williams, Rajkiran Barhey, Kwame Sekyere and representatives from 10,000 Interns Foundation and Bridging the Bar.
