

Simon Davenport KC joins 4 Pump Court

We are delighted to share that Simon Davenport KC has joined 4 Pump Court.

Simon is a leading senior commercial and chancery silk who specialises in commercial disputes, civil fraud, insolvency, international arbitration and professional negligence cases both domestically and internationally. He has an outstanding reputation in the UK and abroad and a deep knowledge of overseas legal systems, including the Caribbean and Russia / CIS countries, often providing expert opinions on English Law for use in proceedings involving trust and contract law. Simon is described by the market as ‘a hard working and affable counsel, who is great with both professional and lay clients from around the world’.

Joint Heads of Chambers commented: “We are excited to welcome another very impressive silk to our well-established commercial team. Simon is a significant addition to 4 Pump Court and brings with him a distinguished reputation and notable expertise in the field of commercial litigation.

Simon Davenport KC added: “I am thrilled to be joining a chambers with such a depth of talent and experience in my core areas of practice and am excited about the future. I am especially grateful to my clients and colleagues who have given me so much excellent work and support over the years and look forward to working with them at 4 Pump Court. ”