

Six members of Chambers feature in The Pro Bono Recognition List 2025

The Pro Bono Recognition List has been published today which recognises solicitors and barristers who undertook 25 hours or more legal pro bono over the last year. We are delighted to share that Alex Potts KC, Jennie Gillies, James Watthey, George Woods, Ruth Bala and Anna Hoffmann have featured.

Set up under the sponsorship of the Attorney General's Pro Bono Committee, endorsed by the Lady Chief Justice and with the support of The Law Society, The Bar Council of England and Wales and all major pro bono legal organisations, the Recognition List celebrates the valuable contribution of individual lawyers and organisations who provide pro bono legal help to those in need.

“Pro bono is not a substitute for legal aid, but it is a valuable part of our system of justice, working alongside the advice sector. The judiciary sees first-hand how pro bono advice and representation helps those who might not otherwise receive legal assistance.” – Lady Chief Justice of England and Wales, The Baroness Carr of Walton-on-the-Hill.

View the full list here.