

Success at Legal 500 Awards 2022 for 4 Pump Court

Members and staff had an enjoyable evening at The Legal 500 awards last night, and were delighted to receive two awards:

- Technology and Data set of the year
- Kate Livesey – Professional Negligence junior of the year

4 Pump Court were shortlisted for 10 awards ahead of the evening. Nominations are based on Legal 500's independent research and feedback from clients, submissions from the Bar and interviews, for the annual directories. Winners are selected by a judging team spearheaded by Global Bar editor Will Tolcher, deputy Bar editor Charlotte Meredith and publishing director David Burgess, and includes over 20 in-house and freelance researchers with in-depth knowledge of their practice areas.

In the Professional Negligence ranking, Tier 1 junior Kate Livesey is described as “hard working, clever, and diligent. She thinks carefully and thoroughly about her cases, exploring every angle, and leaves no stone unturned. Her advocacy is very persuasive.”

Congratulations to all those nominated. We are continually grateful to our clients for their positive feedback and loyalty.
