

Success for 4 Pump Court in the Chambers and Partners Asia Pacific Guide 2024

The Chambers and Partners Asia Pacific 2024 Guide has been released and 2 of our Silks have been recognised for their work in the Asia Pacific Region for International Arbitration.

Sean Brannigan KC has been included in the UK Bar 'Spotlight' table. Sean regularly represents Korean and Chinese parties in global cases, splitting his time equally between Asia, the UK and the Middle East. He is described as 'a respected figure in the international arbitration sphere, demonstrating a particularly high level of expertise in construction and energy proceedings'.

Christopher Moger KC has been listed in Band 2 for 'Most in Demand Arbitrators'. Christopher has practised on the Asian arbitration scene for over 20 years, concentrating exclusively on work in the arbitrator role since 2017 and sitting in cases heard in Hong Kong, Singapore and Seoul as well as outside the region. He is described as 'a formidable intellect'.
