

The second edition of The Law of Artificial Intelligence published

The second edition of The Law of Artificial Intelligence, co-edited by Matthew Lavy KC and Matt Hervey was published last month.

AI is developing at an ever-increasing pace, more and more jurisdictions are introducing AI regulation, and real-world disputes involving AI are starting to come before the Courts. This practitioner text examines the application of existing civil and criminal laws to AI, and addresses emerging AI regulations in the UK and beyond. Several members of 4 Pump Court have contributed to this updated edition (alongside other barristers, solicitors and academics): Matthew Lavy KC, Iain Munro, Laurence Page, Rebecca Keating, Laura Wright and Quentin Tannock.

You can purchase a copy here.